Topic: The darkness is thriving – Part 20

Bible Reading: Genesis 1:1-8

Use your position judiciously

It is inevitable for people to use their positions judiciously during their lifetime; because every soul will give account of his or her stewardship to the Almighty God. Inasmuch as people are destined to die once and then face judgment. Why not use your position judiciously? When you still have the opportunity to right the wrong, why not do it? Why not use your position wisely before consequences come? The Bible attested to this fact by saying, “And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment.” Hebrew 9:27. With the knowledge that humans will face judgment; why not utilize your position with common sense and prudence? Stop using your position in a biased way; else, you will be guilty before the Lord.

God put you in position for a purpose: Whatever position that you presently occupy is not due to your power or smartness, but because God sanctioned it for a purpose. People in exalted positions should stop thinking that it is due to their influence, or connections, or might. Inasmuch as you are occupying that position based on the assistance of God; do not depend on your own power or strength. Since humans cannot succeed by their own strength or power; you must never misuse your position.

People who are using their positions to bully or oppress others are misusing their positions, and such people are prone to be replaced. For this reason, do not use your position to exploit or suppress others; else there will be repercussions. The scripture confirmed this fact by saying, “This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: ‘Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ Says the Lord of hosts.” Zechariah 4:6. Do not forget that using your position judiciously is a requirement to inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Abstain from distractions: It is important for every soul who desires to please God to abstain from distractions that can make him or her displease his or her Maker. Whether we like or not distractions and temptations will happen during the course of our journey on earth; so, it is left for every individual to defeat and ignore them. Christians must keep away from carnal things that can tempt them and make them unfaithful to God. The Beloved must refrain from acquiring excessive quantities of carnal things that can make them misbehave, or misuse their positions.

You need to flee from acquiring living and nonliving things that can make you turn away from God. You must not make yourself rich at the expense of others, or get involved in things that will divert your care from the Brethren. Never accumulate things that can ruin your relationship with your Creator; according to the Bible passage which says, “Neither shall he multiply wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold for himself.” Deuteronomy 17:17. It is time to abstain from immoral conduct that will not allow you to use your position for the purpose of God.

Position is a test: We need to realize that position is like a test whereby everyone who uses their positions sensibly will be rewarded while those who abuse their positions will be penalized. Much will be expected from anyone who has been given much, and the more important the position a person is entrusted, the more people will expect from such a person. When someone has been given much, much will be required in return, and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.

It means the more exalted your position, the more the demand. The scripture corroborated this fact by saying, “But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.” Luke 12:48. Do not forget that the demands of your position are proportional to its importance. Check yourself, because your responsibility will be greater; if much gifts, or resources, or exalted position is given to you.
